NMGS MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of New Mexico Genealogical Society (NMGS) is to promote, develop, and encourage genealogical research, to preserve and perpetuate the records of ancestry and publish records, and to make genealogical and historical information available to all through publications, meetings, and workshops.

PRESIDENT & VICE PRESIDENT SEARCH

Submitted by Henrietta M. Christmas

Dear NMGS Members

Lead Our Search!

Do you love genealogy and have a vision for our community? NMGS needs you! We are officially seeking nominations for the positions of President and Vice-President for the upcoming term beginning January 2026.

This is your chance to:

- Guide our society's future.
- Shape our events and programs.
- Inspire fellow researchers.

We're looking for enthusiastic members ready to make a difference. No formal experience is necessary, just a love for what we do! This isn't just about running meetings. This is about vision. It's about asking: How can we better serve our members? What new technologies can we embrace? How do we grow our genealogical community and share our collective passion for discovery?

We are seeking a President who will be our society's chief advocate and visionary, guiding our strategic direction and serving as the public face of our community.

We need a Vice-President to support the President, helping to manage our programs, support our committees, and ensure smooth operations.

You don't need a formal leadership resume. You need a passion for our shared mission, a collaborative spirit, and a desire to give back. The current board will provide full support and guidance to ensure a smooth transition.

To nominate yourself or another member (with their permission), please send a brief statement of interest to infornmgs@gmail.com.

Is this New Mexico's Miguel Gallegos?

Henrietta M. Christmas

Found in: Hillerkuss, Thomas. Diccionario Biográfico del Occidente Novohispano: Siglo XVI. Vol. 2, D-G. Zacatecas: Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas, Centro de Docencia Superior, 2001.

GALLEGOS, Miguel

Escribano en la villa de Nombre de Dios, en junio y noviembre de 1564. Cuando fue celebrada la almoneda pública de los bienes de Sancho Jiménez, difunto, el día 28 de ese mismo mes y año, Gallegos compró tres sábanas viejas, por 6 pesos; tres camisas de Ruán, viejas, por 7 pesos; una sobrecama, vieja, por 2 pesos; y 60 fanegas de maíz, por 120 pesos. Llama la atención el hecho de que siendo el escribano del remate, resultó ser el comprador más importante, por lo que se pueda suponer que esta almoneda se efectuó a puerta cerrada.

El 27 de marzo de 1567 en la villa de Nombre de Dios, como notario apostólico -por mandato de fray Pedro de Espinareda, juez de lo espiritual, por comisión del obispo Don fray Pedro de Ayala-, inició un proceso contra Guillén Bernal, por el delito de infidencia, el cual fue el primer proceso formal del Santo Oficio en tierras de la Nueva Vizcaya. El proceso aún siguió en 1569 (Hoyo, 1978: 519; Porras Muñoz, 1980: 385; MS 132a).

GALLEGOS, Miguel

Scribe in the town of Nombre de Dios, in June and November of 1564. When the public auction of the assets of the deceased Sancho Jiménez was held, on the 28th of that same month and year, Gallegos bought three old bedsheets, for 6 pesos; 3 old Rouen shirts, for 7 pesos; an old bedspread, for 2 pesos; and 60 fanegas of corn, for 120 pesos. It is noteworthy that being the scribe of the auction, he turned out to be the most important buyer, for which it can be supposed that this auction was carried out behind closed doors.

On March 27, 1567, in the town of Nombre de Dios, as apostolic notary - by mandate of Fray Pedro de Espinareda, judge of the spiritual, by commission of the bishop Don Fray Pedro de Ayala - he initiated a process against Guillén Bernal, for the crime of infidelity, which was the first formal process of the Holy Office in the lands of Nueva Vizcaya. The process was still ongoing in 1569 (Hoyo, 1978: 519; Porras Muñoz, 1980: 385; MS 132a).

16 de Setiembre and Other Celebrations of Mexican

Former State Historian Robert J. Torrez reflects on documents from the Mexican Archives of New Mexico (1821-1846) that show the pride New Mexicans took in their observation of 16 de Setiembre, the official celebration of Mexican Independence from Spain, and in their connection to Mexico. This presentation will review the well-documented and elaborate plans made for this and other local celebrations when New Mexico was still part of Mexico – and may give you some ideas about how to celebrate your own September 16th.

New Mexico Genealogical Society Copyright Policy

It has come to our attention that unauthorized copying, scanning, and photographing of New Mexico Genealogical Society (NMGS) publications is occurring. We want to remind our members and the public that NMGS holds the copyright to its publications, including transcriptions, translations, and other research materials.

Our goal is to keep the purchase price of our publications as affordable as possible to ensure broad access to New Mexico's genealogical history. However, the ongoing unauthorized reproduction of our work undermines these efforts. Every unauthorized copy represents a loss of income that would otherwise support future research, publication efforts, and the preservation of New Mexico's historical records.

These publications are the result of countless hours of volunteer labor, transcribing and translating old church and historical records—a tedious and time-consuming process undertaken to benefit researchers and the wider community. We ask for your support in respecting copyright protections and ensuring that NMGS can continue its mission.

If you wish to use NMGS materials for educational or research purposes, please contact us to request proper permissions. Your cooperation helps us preserve and share New Mexico's rich genealogical heritage for generations to come.
